Delaware History Museum Hosts Story Time Fun Following the Wilmington Jaycees Christmas Parade

Join us for a winter-themed story time, activities, book giveaway, and more!

Wilmington, DE — Join the Delaware Historical Society at its Delaware History Museum on Saturday, November 28 following the 52nd Jaycees Christmas Parade for some family-friendly holiday fun at 12 pm. The Parade begins at 11 am at 5th and Market—practically right in front of the Delaware History Museum located at 504 N. Market St. Afterward, parade goers (as well as other members of the public) are invited to warm up inside the Delaware History Museum for a winter-themed story time. Teachers from local schools, as well as Wilmington Police and Firefighters, will be our readers for the day. Stories will include perennial favorites such as The Snowy Day, The Mitten, and other selected titles. There will also be craft activities, door prizes, and each child under 12 will take home a book of their choosing, plus other giveaways!

WHAT: Parade & Story Time

WHERE: Delaware History Museum at 504 N. Market St., Wilmington

WHEN: Saturday, November 28, 2015, 12 to 2 pm.

HOW: Free and open to the public.

About the Delaware Historical Society:

The Delaware Historical Society owns and operates the Delaware History Museum; a nationally recognized Research Library; Old Town Hall; Willingtown Square, four 18th-century houses surrounding a picturesque urban courtyard located in Wilmington; as well as the Read House & Gardens located in historic New Castle, recognized as an “American Treasure” by the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the National Park Service; and the Center for African American Heritage, which will be included as part of the expansion of the Delaware History Museum, expected to reopen in spring 2016.
