Untapped History Series Kicks Off on May 20 with Game Night

A new series for history buffs and the culturally-curious over 21 crowd.

Wilmington, DE — Join the Delaware Historical Society for the kickoff of the 2016 Untapped History Series on Friday, May 20, 2016 from 7-9 pm. This evening series of happenings, intended for those 21 and older, will offer exclusive opportunities to explore rarely seen artifacts from our collections all while enjoying light refreshments including, but not limited to, adult beverages. The first program will look at the historical fascination with board games and will feature some of the more intriguing board games from our collection. There will also be some contemporary board games on hand for playing and a variety of brews provided by Dogfish Head Craft Brewery, Inc.

WHAT: Untapped History: Game Night

WHERE: Delaware History Museum at 504 N. Market St., Wilmington

WHEN: Friday, May 20, 2016 from 7-9 pm

HOW: Reservations are required and can be made by calling (302) 655-7161. The cost is $7 for Delaware Historical Society members and $10 non-members.

Subsequent Untapped History events will take place on July 15 and November 18.
