Dear Lee:

How's everything? We have not heard from you since Tuesday and we were wondering. We don't have your pictures which you had taken yet. I hope we got them some time tomorrow or Saturday. We've been awfully busy with taking pictures this week. Our class is having them in the supposed to go to some tea "Echo." Bill Thurman was at being given by the alumnae school and he's home on of Wilson College. Fur' Ugh! several days' leaves. Mr.

The boys of the class have voted to wear street clothes to commencement. As most of them will go into active service soon after graduation, it would be silly to buy all those new clothes. Shoes are something else, too.

Bessie, mother, and I went over to a dress-up dinner over at school on Tuesday night. It was a Red Cross dinner. Eddie Glennon was there. He gave daddy an Jarrett came down to school on Wednesday morning. Miss Lamb has supposedly caught the measles, so Mr. Howe asked him to take charge of the civics & history classes. So yesterday & today he was at school. He went back tonight, though. He said that they had been ~~very~~ very, very busy up there so that's why he couldn't write for so long.

Saturday afternoon I'm empire's contract for the Blue Roaches, and it's real too. It's swell that you bumped into Pete Figgatt!!

Tonight the seniors beat 8-1 section of the eighth grade in inter - mural basketball. They're lettering the eighth play this year. It feels terrible playing with those little kids.

Enclosed, are some slates Bernie & Ronnie took and had enlarged.

Lots of love -
