Dear Lee,

Today is the day after the Prom. I slept late and am sitting in my housecoat typing to you this letter. We had a wonderful time, but it seemed like it had just started when it was over. The orchestra was swell and they had two vocalists. It rained all yesterday morning and we were sort of worried, but it cleared, even though it was damp. Normon Cook just found out yesterday that he has to leave on the first of June and so Jean was rather low last night. Jim Durnan was over at school on Thursday and I mean to tell you that he really looked neat. He is a corporal now, but I don't know where he is stationed.

Have you gotten your "Echo" yet? It should be there by now. Don't you think that my picture is horrible? Well, I do. What do you think of it? I know that Mr. Yingst would appreciate it if you would write and tell him what you think. Henry DiDonato and Franny Mac Allister are home on leave also and both were at the Prom. Commencement is coming along pretty good now and it won't be long before I am through at Alexis I. I hate to think of my Physics and Trig exams but I guess that I'll get through.

We all thought that it was going to stay hot but today is damp and chilly again. I really don't have any more news so I guess that I'll stop. If you don't hear from me next week you'll know that I'm studying hard for exams.

Lots of love,

Shirley
