

Wednesday morning

[AUGUST 11, 1943]

Dear Lee:-

Your letter to Bernice came this morning and I took the liberty of opening it, for she is working today. They'll certainly be thrilled, I guess, to know you danced with Hedy Lamarr.

The pictures we took on your camera were not very successful, some of them not coming out at all. I am enclosing the ones which "took" The one of me is terrible and I did not want to send it but the girls insisted. Bernice got me laughing and I look as tho I have a thousand wrinkles. Please don't show it to anyone else. I'll try to get a better one for you.

I'll write more later. Love from all of us.

Mother
