Dear Lee: —

I'm awfully busy this week but tonight I'm trying to write several letters before I begin to study. Last Saturday I was down at the library from 9:30 to 3:30 working on a biology term paper. Boy, we really did slave. It rained here all last Friday and Saturday. Sunday it turned very cold and threatened snow all day. It's been quite cold since then. I imagine you're still roasting every day, that's why I'm telling you this.

Sunday morning three girls and I were walking home from church when a car drove up beside me. I looked up and guess who it was! Walter, Paddy, and Bernice! I was so surprised I didn't know what to do. They just decided they'd drive up and see how I was getting along. We had dinner together and talked and talked. They were only here about three hours because they wanted to start home before dark and because I had lots of work to do. I was so very glad to see them though.

We're having tests of all kinds this week and reports come out at the end of it. We get reports every four weeks here, so we're really kept on our toes. I hope I make out alright, but they all say that we get horrible grades the first time.

The other night I went to the brownie with the cadet I think I've mentioned before. We saw some pictures of the Notre Dame - ? game, the one in which Crady Muller made all those touchdown. They showed him running and everything and I felt so wonderful that I threw a football here. He still looks the same. Is Tom in the Army or haven't you heard? I'm having an awful time trying to stay in contact with our bunch and I guess you do too.

Your flying seems to be getting tougher all the time, but I guess after a while, you will wonder how you ever thought such stuff could be hard. I won't be surprised to see you make a three point landing right on our drill field. I guess those checkups really keep you on your toes, don't they?

Our English teacher is very nice, but I'm sure you would like him. He just reminds me of someone you would like. He knows his English and is plenty tough, but still a grand guy.

We're getting quite a stock of food in our rooms now. Mother brought some stuff up with her on Sunday. I think I'm eating now now that I ever have. College is supposed to make you gain ten pounds, I hear.

Well, it's getting close to study hour and I'm protor on our floor this week. That means I have to see that it is kept quiet. Write when you can because I love to hear from you. Be good and don't work too hard.

Love and lots of love —
Shirley
