Dear [Name],

I am now sixteen. I don't look any older, I don't feel any older, and I certainly don't act any older. So all my knowledge I didn't grow an inch which I shall rue from this day forward. How's the old wisdom teeth coming along, or should I say going? I don't think I did or any. Perhaps that explains my report card. Am I?

Shirley called Sunday night to wish Dad a Happy Birthday. We really had a crowd out for dinner. Both Brannies, all 3 brothers and yours...
Do you want me to get anything for mom for you for Christmas? I could order her some spoons or glassware for her set, 'cause she would like them as well as anything. Better write me soon about this 'cause it's hard to get stuff around here at short notice.

Walt Biddle is home for Thanksgiving and tells me that his brother William got a medical discharge from the army. He didn't say why.

I got a letter from Shirley today and she won't get home until the 33rd of Dec. and has to go back about the 3rd or 4th of Jan. What a short vacation! Talk about being there! And Marline, Juney and, of course, Beryl, (the brat). She is really a rambunctious little rascal if I ever saw one.

Mom probably told you about our excursion to New York.

What a place! We had a Swedish dinner at the Stockholm. We helped ourselves from a smorgasbard and you could go back as many times as you wanted for seconds.

Listen, Bum, write home and tell us explicitly about what youse wants for Xmas, see? Make, etc.? Also include a couple of things you need that Branny could get, like flannel, etc. Right away!
How d'ya like me new writing paper. It's me sister's present for me. Mom gave me a white sweater and I got 3 little pitchers for my room collection from Jissie.

Our first basketball game is on the 4th of Jan. I don't know who will, though.

Well, pard, guess I better go to mom as Mammy is callin'.

So long!

Love,

Bernice
