Dear Lee:-

Mother is reading "So is"
Grandmother Jones. Walter and Bernice are making fudge and drinking "coke". It's a quiet and beautiful evening here.
We're hoping it isn't too ugly a one where you are.

How about broadcasts. I wonder if you'll hear the Mary-Notre Dame one to-morrow. I thought to be the game of the year. Naby has plenty of power. You know I suppose, that Miller is coaching at Notre Dame.

Political feeling runs high just now. Father Tischer made a public appeal for Dewey to-day.
It looks tough for us, though.
Delaware looks safe - and maybe the country you. I know before this reaches you.

Ben Johns registered Ted.
He, Mr. Montgomery, Dr. Johns and
I celebrated with a round of golf Monday. Ben and I beat the two "old fellows."

Everybody asks for you -
and wants to be remembered - Mrs.
Burkin, Mr. Weinstein, the Hannings,
etc.
The best always - Dad.
