Dear Louis:

I haven't written to you for about two weeks and I just realized it tonight. So many things have happened to me since then, that I guess I've been doing too many other things. Last week was pretty awful up here 'cause we had tests and I really had some whoppers! I was scared to death of our psychology test, and it was awful. But, guess what I got! An A! I just couldn't believe it, but it certainly is wonderful!

One more day and I will be going home for four days. Vernon and I are going to see all the sights! Probably won't be very much to do, but it will just be nice to be there for a few days!

Last Thursday night, we went sang at a big Masonic dance downtown. We got a super turkey dinner and then afterwards we did our musical show. They really enjoyed it and we had a grand time going it to them. And we got paid two dollars apiece! We're big time operators now! Shee I got paid here, Ted had called and was supposed to call later. Well, he hasn't called yet and I don't know what the score is. It's a great life, but — Well, drop I'll write you soon. Be good and be glad you like Cofod. Here's a nice Thanksgiving! Lots of love — Shirley
