Untapped History Series Continues on July 15 with On the Town

A Delaware Historical Society series for history buffs and the culturally-curious over 21 crowd.

Wilmington, DE — The Delaware Historical Society's Untapped History series continues this month with On the Town on Friday, July 15, 2016 from 7-9 pm. This evening program, intended for those 21 and older, will explore the vibrant history of Wilmington's nightlife through objects and images from the collections of the Delaware Historical Society. Plus, the Delaware duo of Bruce & Sam will perform their blend of jazz, blues, folk and everything in between. Light snacks and beverages will be available, including adult beverages.

WHAT: Untapped History: On The Town

WHERE: Delaware History Museum at 504 N. Market St., Wilmington

WHEN: Friday, July 15, 2016 from 7-9 pm

HOW: Reservations are required and can be made by calling (302) 655-7161.
The cost is $7 for Delaware Historical Society members and $10 non-members.

About the Delaware Historical Society:

The Delaware Historical Society owns and operates the Delaware History Museum; a nationally recognized Research Library; Old Town Hall; Willingtown Square, four 18th-century houses surrounding a picturesque urban courtyard located in Wilmington; as well as the Read House & Gardens located in historic New Castle, recognized as an "American Treasure" by the National Trust for Historic Preservation and the National Park Service; and the Center for African American Heritage, which will be included as part of the expansion of the Delaware History Museum, expected to reopen in October 2016. For more information, call (302) 655-7161 or visit www.dehistory.org.
