DEATH.—The Philadelphia papers announce the death of Richard L. West, Esq., of Lewes, in this State. He has been long known as Marine correspondent of the Philadelphia Globe, and was highly esteemed as a friend of the distressed mariners. He died on the 22d inst., at Georgetown, in this State, while on a visit to his family.

by the remains of his murdered parent, which he continued to watch over during the whole of that gloomy night, and did not leave the spot until the neighbors had assembled on the following morning.
Williams is an intemperate man, and we have no doubt that rum caused him to commit the foul and diabolical act.

Joe Smith Again.—The Illinois State Register asserts that "the agent of Missouri has applied to Gov Ford for an armed force to aid him in arresting Joe again, but that the Governor had not decided whether to grant the request or not."

The Alton Telegraph says:—"We regard the location of this unprincipled scoundrel in Illinois as one of the greatest calamities that ever befel the state.
He, and those over whom he exercises the most unlimited control, now hold the balance of political power in this State. Governed by no political principles whatever, they, at every election, throw themselves in market like cattle for sale."

DIED in this city on Tuesday last, Rev. PETER SPENCER (colored) aged 61 years, and six months.
He bore an excellent character, and was extensively known as the most active and influential minister of Union Church (colored) in this city, branches of which are spread throughout several of the surrounding States. His death has produced a serious vacancy, and it will be difficult to find any person who will fill his station with the industry, ability and influence which he did.

The proximity of the Brandywine Springs to Wilmington, and the large number of vis- iters assembled there, require their accommo- dating and pains-taking host to make large demands on our market for the supply of lux- uries and substantials for his tables.

We are gratified that the Spring has been well patronized this year. It is a delightful spot, splendidly situated, and admirably cal- culated for the accommodation of the sick and enervated.

PETER SPENCER.—On Sunday last the remains of Peter Spencer, (colored) who had departed this life on the night of the preced- ing Tuesday, were followed to the grave by as large a collection of persons (colored) as have at any time attended a funeral in this city. Peter Spencer was, we believe, a prac- tically good man, and exercised much influ- ence over the colored population of this sec- tion of country. He was perhaps the Bishop, or highest clerical officer of the church in the United States to which he was attached, and has died leaving behind a "good name."
