I drift into the future far as human eye could see,
saw the vision of the world and all the wonders that would be;

... The man drum throbbed no longer, and the little flags were furled
On the Parliament of Man, the Federation of the World.
There the common sense of most shall hold a grateful sleep in awe,
And the kindly earth shall slumber, kept in universal law.

Alfred Lord Tennyson

All the past we leave behind us;
We descend upon a newer, mightier world,
varied world;
Fresh and strong the world we seize, world
of labor and the march, Pioneers! O Pioneers!

Walt Whitman

We shall love the Lord our God with call our heart, and with all our soul, and with all our mind. And we shall love our neighbors as ourselves. For on these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.
