newspaper photo of a light and dark in a painting by Giacomo Balla, The Museum of Modern Art

A hit song during World War Two was a prayer: When the light go on again all over the world.

Today the challenge is teh Re-Birthing of light in the personal lives and impersonal streets of tense urbanized areas all over and near-by.

Still/Still the rebirthing of light is a process of FAITH, of RECONSTRUCTION, and of RECONCILIATION,.

A solid Christmas and a Positive New Year.
