

July 18, 1943
Sunday
Wilmington

Dear Lee —

How's everything? Your letters are scarcer than butter and that's going some. We understand though that you are very busy so we don't mind too much. Have you started your flying again, yet? My job is keeping me up or awaiting.
They're now going to start training pilots with gliders over there. I think it's the first school of its kind. Some fellows fly over from the Air Base in long, two seater silver ships. They call them PT's, I guess that means Tonight the band from the Air Base is going to play for the bay. I don't know whether I'll go over or not, but I'll probably hear just as well sitting on the porch.

Yesterday Bernie and I heard of W.F.B. officials in it. All the big shots come over there. He's on with a soldier band or Saturday afternoon from 2:00 to 2:30. He really sounded swell and his band had the same large group of saxophones in it. He must have the same arrangement, or something. We were tickled to death just to hear his voice though. What do you think of Frank Sinatra? Didn't I tell you last summer when I heard him that he was wonderful?

pilot trained, or does it. They have a large C-47 over there now being repaired. That's quite a big ship. There was a big Navy ship over there the other day with a group of W.F.B. officials in it. All the big shots come over there.

Today in church they dedicated an honor roll plaque. It's a lovely plaque in the front vestibule. Your name was all wrong though. Guess what they had on it! T. Lee Miller Jr. I've never seen it printed that way before, have you?

It'll be fixed up, though so maybe by the time you get home it'll be fixed up.

He's really in the big time now and sounds just as wonderful. Maybe you don't hear much about him but he's really going strong according to all the New York reports.

The Brandywines are giving the "Godoliers" this week or there.
Fri. and Sat and next Mon.

The reason I couldn't be is it is lack of transportation. The pleasure driving bar is still in full force, here, you know.
We're going the second Thursday night. They're having it at the Drama League this year. The Playhouse cost entirely too much, Mr. Noyth said.

Well, papers reading out.
I'll write soon, so do you if you have time.

Lots of love -

Shirley