Dear Lee -

I guess by now you have started in flying every day. Ber has just left and Walter left a little while ago. He got his scholarship to Tower Hill and leaves tomorrow for football camp. Bernie starts school this coming Wednesday but Tower doesn't start until a week later.

Have you heard about my college? I was accepted by Boston and thought I was all set, when everyone kept telling Mother and Dad about the bad conditions there with the service-men. Ber says the morality has

So came home from Ardover on Thursday morning, the morning on which your picture arrived, by the way. It certainly is good of you and everyone likes it a lot. What is your uniform? In the picture it is like a regular officer's but I thought air cadets wore blue or green. Straighten me out, please.

Friday I got a v-mail letter from Ailer who is in Italy. Nobody had heard from him in several months and we were all rather worried.
He has been in the thick of things there and what with Italy just invaded, he might be there by now.

hit a new low in cost. (Ardover is't far from there. So we decided on Williamsport Dickson Junior College in Williamsport Pa.
I guess it will be alright and there are three hundred and fifty air cadets stationed there. It is a very small college, boarding only about forty girls this year as the air cadets took over the dormitories.
They have quite a few students from Williamsport who do not live at the college. It opens sometime after the twentieth, I think it's the twenty-second. Mother and I are in the midst of dress-making and flying to Phila. on trips to buy clothes.
You ought to see our sewing room!

It will seem very strange when next Wednesday rolls around not to take the school bus with Bernice. Mr. Yrjost called up last Thursday and asked if your address had changed. He meant to write earlier but went away and left all the addresses home. You were there or the move but I'll take it to him sometime next week as I want to drop it and see him and everyone else before I leave.

Thanks for the pictures!
