Dear Lee:-

This is a new experience - fitting into this space. But I'll get used to it. - I hope you're enjoying the ball game, a beautiful ball game it is. I had a chance to see Eagles-Redskins but preferred this game. Can see them later.

A thrill you gave us Wed. I hope you could tell how all of us on the ground were enjoying ourselves. The plane seemed to be all you called it. We followed as far as we could - and then went right with you in spirit. Here's hoping all has gone well on the long hop - and that you won't be too long away.

Political broadcasts are being stepped up - and from now on there should be fireworks. Dewey seems to be edging ahead. The Pres.'s voice is old - and is not going over so well. He is in an awful spot - and probably in no better for a campaign. I don't think I would be.

The best to you, Kid. You've learned to make the most of every situation - and you'll make the most of this one.

Dad
