Dear Mother,

I have written an airmail letter to Bernice this evening so you can compare the delivery speed of airmail and V-mail.

Of late I have practically ignored correspondence. I am going to try to write a bunch of Christmas letters however.

I wish that you would use some of the money I send home to purchase Christmas gifts for Dad, Shirley, Bernice, Grandmother Jones, Grandmother Miller and Julia.

I have received two Christmas packages (one each from Grandmother Jones and Bernice). There is hardly a thing I need over here. Can you send me Ben Johns' and J. Bright's addresses.

Love,
Lee
