

now ~~at~~ Wednesday evening
Dear ~~one~~ May 16, 1945 I need only mention to you that I am in a beautiful day just like a May day. Have you had a chance to work in the garden this spring? Bernice? Have you been able to get a reliable boy to work in the garden? Has Bernice let to do a round of the flowers? How were the roses this spring? Did they do away along the road? What other spring flowers did you have? Did you prune and clean up dead growth and debris?
What have you planted this spring?

As yet no redeployment news has been received here. The discharge point system will have no effect on pilot officers however.
Refresher training courses are in full swing until further notice.

With the end of the war in Europe censorship regulations have been relaxed in the U.K. Just don't mention anything which might help the Japs.
I believe that I have told you most of what you might want to know already, but now I can tell you where I am located. East Anglia, Ratcliffe, Suffolk, ten miles northwest of Stowmarket.
I am glad you had a chance to talk to Bob Tassell and Olof Larsen. They are fine fellows. As yet I have not seen Mr. Carpenter or Mr. Rendell.
Love,
Lee
