Dear Mother,
Peace has come at last — Thank God! You can probably picture the joy and thanks deep
in the hearts of us in the service.
Good news today: I was alerted for return to the U.S.A.
Probably sometime within a week I will move to an embarkation point for shipment,
probably by boat, to a U.S. port
and Camp Dix, New Jersey.
Probably I will then get a thirty day leave; maybe after that I will be released and be able to return to "civilian"
life. While home I want to fly at NCAAB, (must have four hours to get August flying pay), relax and play.
Don't write any more for I'll see you soon. Love, Lee

V-Mail service provides a most rapid means of communication. If addressed to a place where photographing service is not available the original letter will be dispatched by the most expeditious means:

INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
- (2) PRINT the name and address in the two spaces provided. Addresses of members of the Armed Forces should show full name, complete military or naval address, including grade or rank, serial number, unit to which assigned or attached, and Army post office in care of the appropriate postmaster or appropriate fleet post office.
- (3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
- (4) Inclosures must not be placed in this envelope.
- (5) V-Mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others, postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if domestic air-mail service is desired when mailed in the U.S.)
