Dear Mother and Dad,

I am coming home!!!
When H.M.S. Queen Elizabeth next docks in New York
I will be cheering from her deck. At last it will be great to be home again.

Remember that it may take a couple days to travel from New York to Camp Dix to Wilmington. I will get in touch with you as soon as I know how things will proceed. Does Wilmington play a Labor Day doubleheader home?

See you soon.

Love to all, Lee

V-Mail service provides a most rapid means of communication. If addressed to a place where photographing service is not available the original letter will be dispatched by the most expeditious means:

INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
- (2) PRINT the name and address in the two spaces provided. Addresses of members of the Armed Forces should show full name, complete military or naval address, including grade or rank, serial number, unit to which assigned or attached, and Army post office in care of the appropriate postmaster or appropriate fleet post office.
- (3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
- (4) Inclosures must not be placed in this envelope.
- (5) V-Mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others, postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if domestic air-mail service is desired when mailed in the U.S.)
