My dear Lee:-

I hope all goes well.

I cannot conceive of a finer course for transition from your army life to your profession than the course you have chosen. There is an interesting variety -- and an arresting vitalness in those courses. So here's to you for a great time.

These beautiful Fall days are giving me a few last opportunities for golf. The cold and snow will be here all too soon. So Mr. Montgomery, Dr. Johns and I are making the most of the present. I hope you'll get going in golf in the Spring so that we can have the fun of playing together next summer.

I preach twice this coming Sunday --- so don't look for us. Hockessin in the morning and for Howell Wilkins in the evening. It will keep my hand in.

We're keeping our eyes peeled for an good football game you'd enjoy. If you would like to see either the Penn Columbia game or the Penn-Army game let me know. Mr. Wetstein has tickets -- and he gave us the choice. Let me know which one.

Love to you!

Dad~
