

1

Saturday 13, 1943

[March 13, 1943]

Dear Lee,

We got your letter to Shirley and I feel very slighted because I have written you two letters and you didn't mention them.

Of all the surprises, last night I came home from choir and found two Playhouse tickets for this afternoon, 'Claudia' is playing and I can't wait. Mother really went on a splurge yesterday getting those tickets and a new dress and hat. She also spent 20 coupons for a box of raisins. This morning it was announced that raisins have dropped from 20 to eight points. Ah, me!!

2

I guess God is really amazed at Mother and I going to the Playhouse, for its really snowing. It started at 8 o'clock and is still going strong at noon.

Miss Webster went to the press conference this weekend in New York. She took your old address and promised to send you a card. I hope it reaches you.

We don't have school today and it really is heaven. Out of force of habit, though, I woke at 7:00.

Walt and I took some swell pictures of Ginger last week. We're getting copies made and will send them to you. Ben gave us those others and we'll send them along soon.

The following is a joke, so laugh;

Two morons were walking along the street. Along came a crosseyed bear. One of the morons lifted his hat and said, 'Hello, Gladly! When out of hearing distance, the other moron inquired politely how he knew the bear's name. Thereupon Moron # 1 answered, "Well, in church we always sing Gladly the cross-eyed bear." [Gladly the cross I bear.]

3

Corn!!

Buster's address is: 18 Little Hall Princeton, N.J.

Well, that about covers everything, including the paper.

Lots of Love,

Bernice

P.S. How were the cookies?

P.P.S. Dick Silver was at school last week. He has enlisted in the Marines.