

Monday Sept. 6, 1943

Dear Sue,

Sister, hi! Did you ever receive a package from Shirley and I containing a snapshot wallet? We sent it two weeks ago and have heard nothing at all. It had a return address on it so I guess it's still floating up around. Please tell if it's caught up with you in the next mail.

Speaking of packages, we sent one Saturday containing sun glasses, shoe equipment, Krispy Krunch and some writing paper from Shirley and I.

When it gets to you, tell us, cause we want to know how long it takes for packages to get you.

Walt left for football camp this morning at 8:37. He went late but will come home with the rest of the boys at school next Saturday.

I start school Wednesday at 8:30. I can hardly wait!
Ha! Ha! Shirley leaves the 27th for Williamsport. Dickinson - no relation to Alma Mater - and the house is in a turmoil trying to get clothes made, supplies bought, etc. I gave her a going-away present of two pairs of wool and rabbit hair socks. Ben gave her a gold bracelet with the Philips Academy seal on it.
Super, huh!

Just call me Janny Tough girl! Thursday I'm marching in the third war loan parade in full A.W.V.S. regalia. I was in charge of recruiting a squad to march and we had practice this afternoon. Orah, orah!

Ginger is shedding by the basketful. She is now sitting here drooling into my lap.

Granny Minder spent Saturday. Tuesday with us.
She is a great help sewing clothes.

Well, write soon.

Love,

Bernice

you were expecting a package and to please forward it.

ma says if you had not received your wallet to write back to San Diego
and say