

7:00 Friday
[October 1, 1943]

Dear Lee,

Thank you so much
of letters in the last week but I missed Monday's lessons when we took Shirley to school and have been unavoidably to catch up.

This evening Walt
and I are going dancing and I'm handwriting this in
while waiting for my polic to dry.

Shirley seems to be getting along well. She's got a roommate that taking medical sec. course too, so that's just fine!

I got your insignia!
Thanks! Ben sent me
his Andover pennant
so I'm pretty well
stuck up, now.

Boy, will I be spoiled
when you get home.
All the attention is really turning my head!

I'm really gotta run
now, see.

Lots of love,
Bernice