Dear Lee,

Please excuse absence of letters in the last week but I missed Monday's lessons when we took Shirley to school and have been endeavoring to catch up.

This evening Walt and I are going dancing and I'm sandwiching this in while waiting for my polish to dry.

Shirley seems to be getting along swell. She's got a roommate that's [sic] taking medical sec. course too, so that's [sic] just fine!

I got your insignia! Thanks! Ben sent me his Andover pennant so I'm pretty well stuck up, now.

Boy, will I be spoiled when you get home. All the attention is really turning my head!

I've really gotta run now, Lee.

Lots of Love,

Bernice
