

Hi,!

Tuesday Night
[October 19, 1943]

Dear Lu,

Please excuse the paper but I'm all out of writing paper and have to use this.

Boy, was Shirley surprised to see us Sunday! One of our room-mates was away but the other + two other girls were battling their way back to the house after church when we pulled up behind them. I was laughing so hard tears were running down my cheeks.

One or two of the girls gave us a queer look and then Shirley glanced our way. Her eyes nearly exploded in mid-air! She let out a screech and we all jumped up together. After piling all the girls in the car, we went up to the house. She so treated us all to a lobster dinner! I really have become a lobster eater. The last time we went up I had it too.

Donald Kirby is home from the merchant marines. Jayce Elder joined the marines. Gordon leaves for the Air Corp Nov. 9th.

Thursday + Friday of this week there is a teacher's meeting so we don't have school. The following Mon., Tues., Wed., Thurs., we have half days because of the new ration books #4 being given out through the schools.

Mon's getting a glass shelf for the window so we can put up your cactus.

May + Judy leave next Friday for college. Boy, but dey sure air set up!

Jane Dunlap, ops, I mean Ballard, and I were standing in front of Crosby's the other day when we saw a

Lee, if you can decipher this letter you're good.

very handsome soldier go
by. Of course, we tripped him, and when he came to we found it was Carl Miller, on furlough. He sure does look swell no kidding.

Speaking of Ballard, he has a job singing in a church
every Sunday, Jane says, after which the always treat him
to dinner. No bad, huh!

Bill Smith + Dick Dautel are home on leave.

Walter really is going to tour in football this year. He has made two touchdowns in 2 games, each time he was the only scorer. The first game with St. Andrews was 6-0, and the second with Sanford
Prep, 14-0.

We gotta knock off and go to bed now, old man.

Lots of love,

So long!
Bernie
