Dearest Lee,

We arrived here yesterday about 6:45 pm & haven't had a chance to do anything but sit in on meetings. I will make a desperate effort to go on the boardwalk after Bishop Corson speaks tonight. I said hello to him at breakfast this morning. He asked for you. In N. Phila. yesterday I bumped into Mrs. Andrews & Mrs. Crowell from Concord. Of course they wanted to know all about you & the rest of the family.

I leave for home late tomorrow afternoon & will write you after I return.

There is no ice or snow here - quite different from Wilmington.

We have nice quarters - only about 1/2 block from boardwalk. We've seen the ocean from our room. Perhaps some day we can all come here together.

Love, Mother
