Dearest Lee:

Last night I struggled with income taxes and this is how I figured yours. It may not be exactly correct for you did not give me dates when certain pay began or ended, and I am not sure of the amounts you received before getting your commission. At any rate here is how I figured and if there are errors they can be taken care of when you get home.

Monthly pay Jan.-Mar. $75.	$225.00
" " Mar.-Dec. $150	1800.	Total base pay $1875.
Flight pay (3 base pay)		757.50
Overseas* (10% Base.)		45.
		$2077.50
		1800.
		$207.50

Exemption

Tax due $74.00 which I am paying

Don't let any of this bother you. You really could wait until you return to do it all if you wanted; but I thought it would be easier to pay this amount and not have too much piling up on you after the war. I still have daddy's to work on tonight, for he never has the material together for me until the last minute.

I had a card from Julia yesterday, also a letter from May.

Last night for dinner Bernice brought home Caroline Denning, Walter, and John Wheaden. They all had to practice at 7:30 for the operetta, after which Caroline came home with Bernice to spend the night.

Today at noon daddy has to preside at the Lenten services; and at 6:30 he speaks at the Claymont Lion's Club. Yesterday he and Mr. Hama went to Dover in the afternoon to attend legislature. I see by the morning paper that state workers have been voted an increase in pay, ranging from $150 to $200 a year.

You remember the Ralph George's in Concord, don't you? We have received an invitation to Millieont's wedding this coming Saturday. How I wish we could accept.

I mailed two rolls of film to you yesterday and I hope they are not too long arriving. I am going to try to get a box off to you, also, with something in it which you can enjoy.

By this time I suppose you are back on the job again. Are you doing the same thing, -that is going on missions; or do you have a different assignment? Love

Mother
